Mike's day

---

Mike gets up at eight.
He is always late...

for breakfast with mom
and her toasts with jam.

Then he goes to school,
meets friends at the pool,

eats a yummy roll
at the baker's stall.

At ten he has Art,
he learns very hard,

$$2 + 2 = 4$$

does sums and takes tests,
he's always the best.

He goes home at three tired as can be...

After dinner Mike
rides his mountain bike...

Then at half past five watches matches – live.

He loves “cooking books”
so he always cooks.

spaghetti with cheese
– Can I have some, please?

At seven o'clock
Mike walks with his dog.

After that at eight chats with his schoolmate...

His mom and his dad
already in bed

shout – “switch off the light,
time to sleep, good night”.
