
Mike in space

Look at the smile on Mike's face,
he is going into space!

His silver spaceship is great!
Time for the countdown: nine, eight...

seven... let's start the mission...
six... to visit the station...

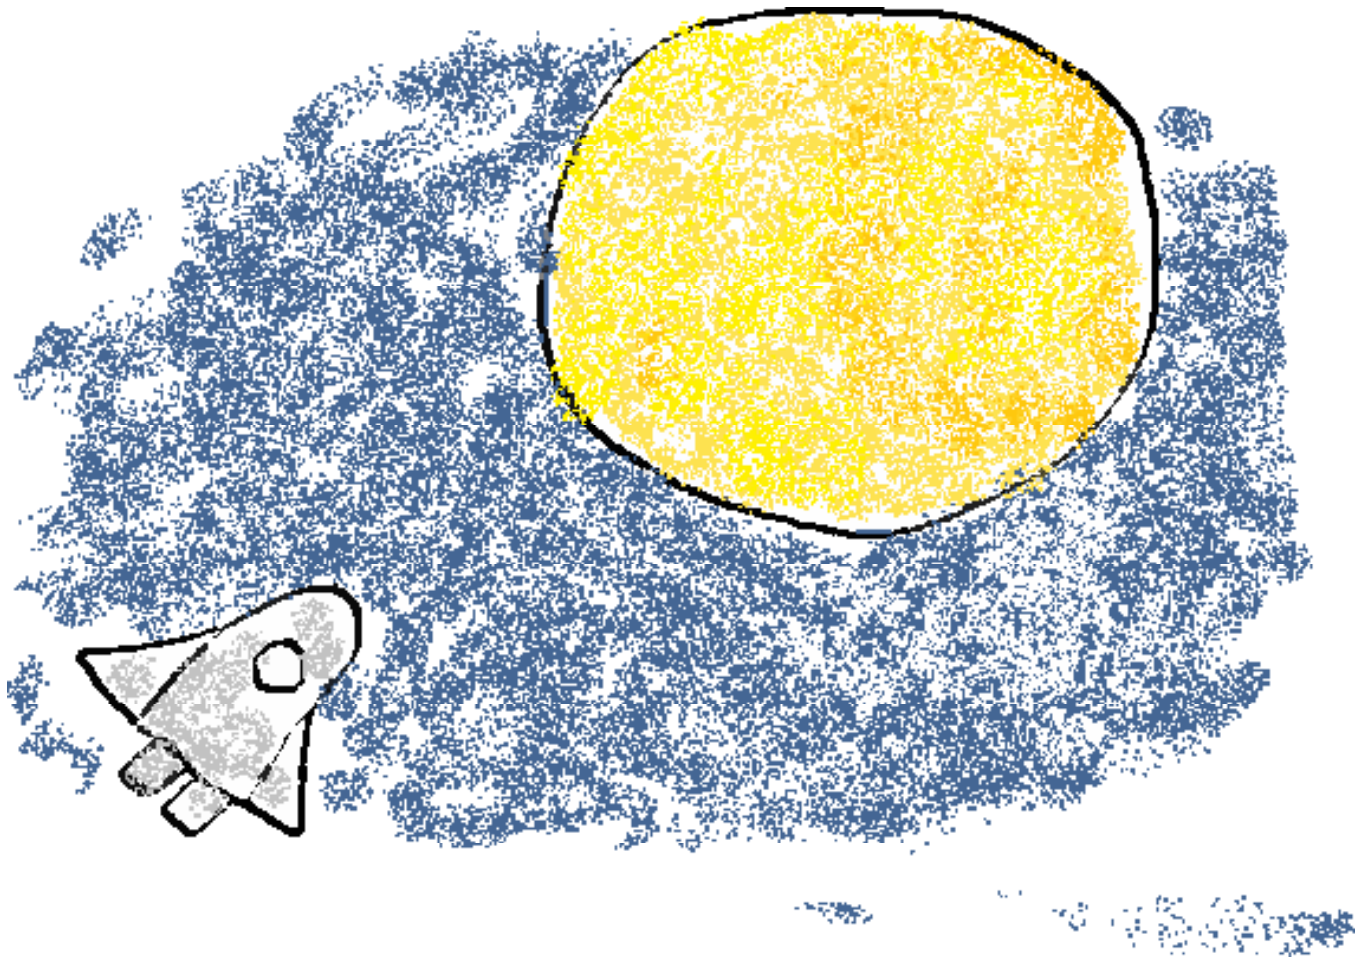

five... it's next to Mars...
four... and between the stars...

three, two, one, lift off, fly high!
See you Mike, take care, goodbye!

Now, it's quiet, very still,
there's no weight that Mike can feel.

That's the Sun, a big light ball,
from the Earth it looks so small.

That grey object is the Moon.
Lucky Mike will land there soon.

-What's that planet? – I don't know.
-Are there aliens? – I hope so.

They are green and have three eyes
but they're nice and friendly guys.

Look! Here's the comet with its tail,
behind is a shining trail.

Mike enjoys the life in space
but he finally leaves this place.
